RULES, ORDERS, AND REGULATIONS
For the Company of
GENTLEMEN CADETS.

I. THAT each Gentleman Cadet shall, upon his Admission, produce a legal Certificate of his Age, which Certificate shall be shewn to the Lieutenant Governor, and by him be transmitted to the Office of Ordnance.

II. THAT every Gentleman Cadet appointed after the First of July, 1764, shall join the Company, reside at Woolwich, and attend the Royal Academy, otherwise he will receive no Benefit whatsoever from his Appointment.

III. THE three Subaltern Officers belonging to the Company, shall take it each by regular Turns to be upon Duty one Week at a time.

IV. THE Officer of the Week is to march the Gentlemen Cadets every Morning and Afternoon, at the appointed Hours, from the Parade at their Barracks to the Royal Academy, and there deliver them over to the Professor or Master on Duty, from whom he will receive them again at the stated Hours when the Academy breaks up, and march them back to their Barracks.

V. HE is to report to the Lieutenant Governor from time to time, all such Complaints as he may receive from the Professors or Masters of the Misbehaviour of any of the Gentlemen Cadets, that they may receive Censure or Punishment according to the nature of their Offence.

VI.

VI. H_E is to attend in the Hall of the Cadet's Barracks at all Meal Times to preserve perfect Order and Regularity.

He is to see the Roll called over at Breakfast, Dinner and Supper, and to order such Cadets as shall be absent without Leave, or shall misbehave at Table, to be confined to their Rooms, reporting the same to the Commanding Officer of the Company.

VII. H_E is to visit all the Rooms in the Cadet's Barracks every Forenoon, to see that they are kept clean, and that the Furniture and Utensils be in good Order, reporting whatever may be otherwise in Writing.

VIII. H_E is to be present when the Roll is called in the several Rooms at Night, viz. at Ten o'Clock in Summer, and at Nine in Winter; and half an Hour after Roll calling, is to see that all the Fires and Candles be put out, and the Barrack Doors locked up.

IX. H_E is to attend all Parades and Exercises with the Gentlemen Cadets, and is not to leave the Warren during his Duty Week, without Leave.

X.

X. H_E is to see that all the Arms and Accoutrements belonging to the Gentlemen Cadets, be kept clean and in good Order.

XI. H_E is to march the Gentlemen Cadets every Sunday Morning and Afternoon, to and from Church in regular Order, and to take Care that they behave themselves there with great Decency.

XII. H_E is to take particular Care in case of Sickness, that the Gentlemen Cadets be duly and properly attended by the Surgeon and Nurses, if necessary.

XIII. H_E is to see that all the Gentlemen Cadets parade every Morning at the appointed Hour, clean and well dressed.

XIV. H_E is to see that all the standing and occasional Orders which may be given relating to the Gentlemen Cadets be duly observed, and to preserve among them at all times, as much as possible, regularity of Behaviour and good Manners, and to prevent all indecent or immoral Expressions, confining to their Rooms, and reporting all who are guilty of such Offences.

XV.

XV. THAT no Gentleman Cadet shall go out of the Warren without Leave of the Lieutenant Governor, or the Officer of the Company commanding.

XVI. THEY are to behave with Civility and good Manners to the Housekeeper of the Cadet Barracks, and are to commit no wilful Waste or Damage to her Prejudice, and in Case any so offend, she is hereby ordered immediately to signify the same to the Cadet Officer on Duty, who is to make report thereof to the Lieutenant Governor, or Commanding Officer of the Company.

XVII. THEY are to pay a strict Obedience to all Orders they may from time to time receive from their Officers, or from those who are appointed to act over them.

XVIII. THE Arms and Accoutrements of the Company are to be placed in the Hall of the Cadet's Barracks and not to be taken down by any of the Cadets unless they are ordered on Duty, and then in Presence of the Officer of the Week, and when such Duty is over the said Officer is to see all the Arms replaced in good Order.

XIX.

XIX. IF any of the Fixtures, Bedding, Furniture or Utensils belonging to any of the Barrack Rooms, be wilfully spoiled or destroyed, or the Windows broken, all such Damage to be made good by the Persons who cause the same, or at the general Expence of the Cadets belonging to such Room, and Stoppages are to be made accordingly.

XX. IF any Gentleman Cadet shall be found guilty of disobeying any of the Rules and Orders established for the Company of Gentlemen Cadets, and for the good Government of the Royal Military Academy, he will be punished according to the Nature of his Offence, or dismissed from the Company with Shame and Disgrace.
